

McNutt Speaks In State

One on Program At Inauguration Of President of Central College

FAYETTE, Mo., May 25.—(AP)—The stream of trained men from colleges and universities will be one of the greatest resources in putting the world back on a path of sense and reason after the war. Paul V. McNutt, War Manpower Commission chairman, declared in an address today at Central college.

McNutt spoke at a special convocation following a morning ceremony in which Dr. Harry S. DeVore was inaugurated as the 15th president of the college which is celebrating its centennial. Bishop J. C. Bromfield of the Missouri Methodist conference delivered the charge to Dr. DeVore, who became acting head of the institution nearly two years ago.

"The first characteristic of education in a democracy is that it emphasizes human values. It is the opposite pole from the false education dictators have used to debase and imprison the minds of men," said McNutt, who declared that the continuing strife after the war will be the "struggle for and against the freedom of the human spirit." One of the theaters of that war will be the classrooms of our colleges.

"The millions of men and women who have been trained in the science of warfare must be trained—re-educated—for peace..." said McNutt.

"I sense that a new world is being born. It will not be a world of easy adjustments. It will be a hot crucible in which thought and emotion will be tested by fire," he continued, "and education will have to share in the general ferment of change. We are seeking a total peace out of this total war."

On the double problem of education of returning service men as well as those only indirectly connected with the war, McNutt declared:

"The liberal arts college cannot afford to relax under the comfortable but passive suggestion of the value of its work, it must stay alive to nourish and invigorate the spirits of its students. Knowledge as such has no compelling force to send a life of purposeful, reasonable behavior on its way. Knowledge is the body of education. The spirit is a developed and directed intelligence.... It is at this point that a college of religious tradition has a unique contribution to make. The ultimate reality of moral values is rooted in the nature of God. Those who walk humbly with Him will love mercy and do justly for His sake."

Pat Prisoners On the Head

MOSCOW, May 25.—(P)—Discussing camps for German prisoners in the United States, the International Review said today:

"When a Red army puts a pistol to a German soldier's head at the front, the captive screams 'Hitler kaput' (Hitler's through) but in America they pat the prisoner on the head and he replies by putting his feet on the table."

The article said it was most remarkable that the conduct of these prisoners in the United States finds no criticism by the prison administration, but "sometimes is even stimulated" by the administration.

Use of Rockets By Navy Planes

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(P)—Use of rockets by navy bombing planes in the destruction of a German U-boat was disclosed today by the Navy.

It was the first attack with the new type projectile developed by the navy, and the announcement indicated that rocket-firing planes have been operating several months.

The two planes—Gruman Avengers—located the Nazi submarine on the surface.

"Attacking with rocket projectiles developed by the United States Navy and backed this new-style onslaught with older weapons," the department said. "The American aircraft apparently destroyed the enemy without damage to themselves."

Many Attend Funeral of Mrs. Fairfax

Casket Was Not Opened; Friends Signed Register

More than 150 relatives and friends attended the funeral services for Mrs. Pearl Fairfax, 59, whose headless body was found in the Lake of the Ozarks on April 16, at the Ewing Funeral Home at 2 o'clock this afternoon. officiating was the Rev. Frank Cook of Smithton and the Rev. Wesley Hampton, pastor of the church at LaMonte which Mrs. Fairfax attended.

Mrs. George Lovercamp and Mrs. Ervin Robinson sang "No Night There," "Sometime We'll Understand," and "Ivory Palaces." Mrs. Mae Moser was the accompanist.

Friends who served as pallbearers were: William Shaw, Joe Brown, Emmett Bohon, James Greer, James Watkins and William McGee.

The body was taken to Otterville where interment was made in the Fairfax cemetery.

Wednesday after the body was returned to the funeral home in Sedalia friends called and signed the register, paying their respects, while curious persons hoping to see the body went to the home, only to learn the casket was closed and would not be opened.

No arrangements have been made as to the disposition of the second headless body, which has been identified as that of Mrs. Molly Mattie Gross Holland, 36, daughter of Mrs. Fairfax, which body was found on April 17. Mrs. Holland is the wife of Edgar W. Holland, 43, former Sedalia automobile dealer, who is being held in the Pettis county jail on a first degree murder charge in connection with the killing of Mrs. Holland.

Mr. Holland, through his attorney Fred F. Wesner, has denied the identification of the body as that of his wife, which identification was made through an investigation conducted by the Missouri state highway patrol.

Corrigan Suspended Pending Investigation

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(P)—Comdr. John D. Corrigan of the Navy's Bureau of Ordnance has been suspended temporarily from duty pending investigation of a statement by Senator Truman (D-Mo.) that many firms producing ordnance material retained Corrigan's engineering firm to study their production problems.

Corrigan was a member of the firm of Corrigan, Osborne and Wells, New York City engineering and management consultants.

The president of the firm, Robert H. Wells, has asserted that Corrigan upon entering the navy in April 1942 severed all connections with the firm.

Formal Dinner Dance Held at Guadalcanal

(By Sergeant Alvin M. Josephy Jr., of Washington, a Marine Corps combat correspondent; distributed by the Associated Press)

GUADALCANAL—(Delayed)—This island's first formal dinner-dance was held here recently, with bracelets made of scrap airplane aluminum for favors.

Foot powder was sprinkled on the concrete floor for dancing.

Honors went to members of Soncool unit, who, inviting a delegation of recently arrived navy nurses, proceeded to do it up in the best Emily Post tradition.

While veterans of South Sea jungle fighting gawked in amazement, the seabees borrowed an army orchestra, decked out a recreation hut, and set to work on a menu such as men scarcely dare dream about in this land of K ration and stew.

Under the direction of the "Maitre D'Hotel" (mess officer), Lieutenant John N. Tuttle, U. S. R. of Pelham, N. Y., 110 thick, juicy T-bone steaks were mysteriously procured as the piece de resistance of a meal which included French fried potatoes, scalloped corn, string beans, heart of palm salad, vanilla ice cream with chocolate sauce, sugar cookies, hot rolls and coffee.

The seabees galley staff worked for a couple of days on the preparations. Native flowers were used for table decorations. Napkins were cut from navy dress white ducks, and table-cloths were borrowed from a navy ship.

Name cards and printed and die-cut menus were at each place. The nurses were seated according to the best etiquette, with a gentleman on either side.

Big Fish Chases Little Fish, Scares It to Death

J. G. Ellis, 1307 East Broadway, Richard Staley and son, Billy, 2221 East Ninth street, while fishing recently on Muddy creek, about seventeen miles northeast of Sedalia, were attracted by a commotion on a ripple in the water. As they watched they saw a large fish, which they judged would weigh about twenty-five pounds, after a small fish which weighed about a pound. The large fish chased the smaller fish out on the bank and waited for it to come back in the water until it was frightened away by the approach of the men. When they reached the smaller fish they found it had died from fright, they report.

DAILY WASHINGTON

by Drew Pearson

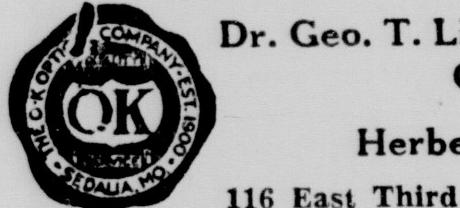

WASHINGTON, May 25—Louis B. Mayer, ebullient mogul of Hollywood and potentate of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, has been spending some time with Catholic Archbishop Spellman of New York planning ways and means of producing "The Passion Play" in pictures.

Mr. Mayer has been most enthusiastic about this, is planning to spend more money on the Passion Play than any other picture that he ever produced. Archbishop Spellman is equally enthusiastic and most of the plans have been worked out.

The Archbishop has agreed to select a young priest who will be able to play the part of the Savior. But because of the natural hesitancy on the part of the church in having one of its priesthood enter pictures as a career, it has

We Will Accept No Laundry
For Four Days

Beginning Friday, May 26th and Ending
Tuesday, May 30th

As a result of the war effort all modern laundries are receiving a much greater volume of business than normally. We, as a result of heavy civilian and military requirements, now find ourselves with so much work in our plants that we must take steps to rectify the situation. In order, therefore, to finish and deliver the work already received and in order to be able to give better service in the future, WE WILL ACCEPT NO LAUNDRY FOR FOUR DAYS, BEGINNING FRIDAY, MAY 26th AND ENDING TUESDAY, MAY 30th.

Our routemen will collect no laundry and our offices will be closed except for telephone calls which will be accepted for laundry to be picked up beginning Wednesday, May 31st. All commercial flatwork from hotels, hospitals, restaurants, etc. will be cared for as usual during this period except on Tuesday, May 30th when our entire plants will be closed.

We appreciate the patronage of the people of Sedalia are giving us and particularly the cooperation we are receiving when our service is not up to the usual standard.

Our offices will reopen and our routemen will be back on the job Wednesday, May 31st and we will continue serving both the public and the Army in the best possible manner. KIP'S MESSAGE

XXIII
LINK saw closer at hand the garden, which he supposed was a beautiful garden by Japanese standards. He did not think the garden was particularly beautiful, although it truly was a work of art. He had never, he realized suddenly, thought that very much of Japanese art was beautiful. It just fascinated him. But being fascinated, and feeling a thing to be beautiful, were two different things, to Link's way of thinking. A snake could fascinate him, because it was grotesque. Because he looked at a snake, and always he wondered how such a thing could have been created in the beginning. Grotesque, that was the word. He looked at Japanese art, a painting or a garden or a wood-carving, and he saw so plainly that it emphasized the unusual or the erotic. He automatically wondered what mental traits in the artist perverted such exquisite mechanical skill into producing such grimness and grossness. There, Link felt, he had almost put a finger on something basic.

Of course, his weeks in Niji Prison could have influenced his taste.

He decided he must be thinking about Japanese psychology in hope that it would explain the present mystery.

Then he jumped like a wolf when Norma spoke to him. The floor mats had absorbed the sound of her approaching footsteps.

In a low voice, Norma said, "I know about Kip." Courtright told me."

When Link saw the tears in her eyes, he felt guilty, and helpless. Actually, he was not guilty of anything but wanting to do a kindness. But he had the sensations of a culprit.

Link began speaking slowly, and with some difficulty. "In his last minutes, Kip gave me a thing that will always be precious to me," he said. "It was, I believe, an understanding of courage. He was not in much pain, and his mind was ual Hollywood routine of saying the price was too much.

After listening for a while, the archbishop good-naturedly reminded him that there wasn't going to be any price, that the church was glad to cooperate. Mayer play is finished.

Before he departed, however, Mayer received two gifts from the archbishop's office and, apparently forgetting part of their previous conversation went through the us-

Mayer has one of the most priceless gems in Hollywood — a good cook. But since he lives some distance from town and since gasoline is scarce, he has been worried about keeping his cook, who is not an isolationist.

So the archbishop presented Mayer for his cook, who is a good Catholic, a specially blessed rosary and an autographed copy of the Bible.

Stassen-Dewey Double Hitch?

Very quiet moves have been launched recently by the Dewey and Stassen forces to get together in advance of the Chicago convention.

The approach was made through a close friend of Governor Stassen who came to see Governor Dewey the other day and suggested that while he couldn't speak outright for Stassen, the Stassen forces were left that Stassen's friend would write to him asking him categorically whether he would withdraw from the presidential race if given the No. 2 place on the ticket, and also whether his forces would cooperate to nominate Dewey. There has not been time as yet to receive a reply.

What the Dewey forces want to prevent is any remote chance of a deadlock at Chicago which might swing the nomination to Stassen, Justice Owen D. Roberts or to Willkie. While they have so many delegates they don't believe there is much chance of this. Nevertheless, they know that Pennsylvania's Joe Pew has been hoping for a deadlock which would throw the convention to Justice Roberts.

NOTE — Friends of Roosevelt are frank in admitting they would much rather have Dewey as an opponent than Roberts. The Supreme court justice has cooperated with the president since Pearl Harbor, has an even better record than Dewey's in breaking up graft as prosecutor of the Teapot Dome scandals, is tall, handsome, a powerful, brilliant speaker. However, GOP diehards consider him too much in favor of international cooperation.

Seven-Come-Eleven

Maybe war leaders are superstitious or maybe there is something to the old seven-come-eleven system for shaking the dice. Anyway, Stanley Arnold of Cleveland has worked out a calendar of the war showing that every significant event has happened on either the seventh or eleventh of the month. Here is the calendar:

Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941

Fall of Guam Dec. 11, 1941

Declaration of war on Germany and Italy Dec. 11, 1941

Invasion of Singapore Feb. 11, 1942

Fall of Corregidor May 7, 1942

Invasion of Kiska June 7, 1942

Invasion of Guadalcanal Aug. 7, 1942

Invasion of North Africa Nov. 7, 1942

Invasion of unoccupied France Nov. 11, 1942

Retaking of Tunis and Bizeret May 7, 1943

Retaking of Attu May 11, 1943

Fall of Pantelleria June 11, 1943

Finally Mr. Arnold points out that the recent renewed attack on Italy started May 11 at 11 p.m.

NOTE — Wonder if the invasion is going to start on the 7th or the 11th.

"What did he say?" Norma asked.

"They were kind things. I knew that he was a man who had never done anything to anyone of which he was ashamed. To me that was a quiet and wonderful thing. And mostly he spoke of Symantha."

"Kip always called me Symantha."

"Yes, Courtright told me."

"Did he have any particular request?"

LINK nodded. "He asked me to tell Symantha several things, and I promised I would. He wanted you to carry on, the old chin up. And he wished you to contact three men. The three were Johnson and Tom Fung and Gardner. I am quite sure those were the names."

"Yes, Johnson, Tom Fung and Gardner," Norma said. "They are our employees; men we fully trust. They were in Singapore with Kip, the last I heard."

LINK drew back. He felt most uncomfortable. "Please, no," he said helplessly.

"I want you to, Link," Norma said quietly. "It is a thing I want to know. Don't you see?"

The duty was painful for Link. He believed he felt as uncomfortable now as at any other time in his life.

Courtright was standing close by. And she was avoiding Link's gaze, he was sure.

"This next," said Link, "is important. I think Kip had me repeat it over and over, and asked me to use the very same words when I told you. I gathered that it was a message which would have the correct meaning only to you."

Norma said, "That is like Kip. He did that sometimes. Often used little phrases which had particular meaning."

"I have the exact words," Link said.

"What are they?"

Link could remember what Kipman Greer had told him. He could recall each word.

"A cyclone cellar is a nice thing to have, Symantha, even when the storm is over." That is the message. That one sentence."

U. S. Submarines Sink 15 Vessels

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(P)—Censorship Director Byron Price says he is unable to find a single case where a newspaper or other publication "deliberately" violated the voluntary wartime censorship code.

Testifying to the house appropriations committee at hearings made public today, Price said:

"The attitude of the press has been magnificent. There have been some mistakes and some inadvertent violations of the code... I think the record is exceptionally fine on that, in view of the manpower situation on newspapers today, where most newspapers are being run by green hands."

Price said a free press has been maintained but it has not been "criminally careless with military information in wartime."

Complaint Not Justified

LONDON, May 25.—(P)—As the house cheered, Home Secretary Herbert Stanley Morrison told Commons today that the complaint one member made against behavior of American troops in Britain "did not give either a fair or accurate picture."

House Member William D. Kendall, an independent, had declared "it is unfit for a woman to walk unescorted through a town at night, due to the ineffectiveness of American military authorities to deal with the improper behavior of American forces, and the complete failure to prevent unconcealed immorality and give proper protection to women."

Each recent announcement of submarine sinkings has included at least one ship from the enemy's fighting fleet, indicating that the Japanese are attempting unsuccessfully to combat the daring American submarine crews who have been cutting off supplies to enemy garrisons throughout the Pacific area.

In reply the home secretary said "in particular the innuendo that United States authorities are failing to assist to the utmost in disciplining their troops and checking misbehavior is quite unjustified."

Will Consider Sale Springfield Utility

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—(P)—The sale of Federal Light & Traction Company's interest in Springfield (Mo.) Gas and Electric company to R. H. Teed of Hot Springs, Ark., will be considered by the securities and exchange commission at a hearing June 7, it was announced today.

Federal will sell all the common stock of Springfield — 50,000 shares without par value — for $65,000 cash. Of this, $32,500 was paid when the agreement was made on April 22 and the rest is due upon delivery of the securities.

Federal will add the proceeds to its general fund.

Joplin Bakers Return to Work

JOPLIN, Mo., May 25.—(P)—Union workers in two large baking companies agreed last night to return to work after a four-day strike which had cut the city's bread supply to about 10 per cent of normal. Two hundred union bakers were involved in the walkout.

Edward A. Ruesing, regional director of the War Labor Board at Kansas City, said a rate schedule for wages in the Joplin area would be ready in a few days. The schedule must be set, he said, before the WLB can act on the joint request of the union and companies for an increase in bakers' wages.

The Russians still massed, and radio Moscow said the Red Army soon would liberate the rest of Russia and "other European nations." The 7,000 Allied planes which splattered the Germans with 5,500 tons of bombs from Berlin to Vienna, from Paris to Zagreb and elsewhere yesterday destroyed 132 of the enemy's dwindling aircraft, losing 52 bombers and 27 lesser planes.

Soon after reaching the jungle ooze they were sure that mules would be of no use, and that it would be easier to carry their own bulky supplies and cumbersome equipment, so they discarded the mules and each man carried a 70-pound load. The twenty-four men divided into two groups to tackle the problem from either end of the proposed line. One right-of-way led through hip deep swampland and up a vine-tangled mountain. The second group put to sea in a small boat to reach the foot of the same mountain, starting their job from the other side.

Cpl. Barsch was a member of the first group but they later exchanged jobs with the other group.

They ran into heavy weather, many became seasick on their trip around the mountain and they found their rations, intended for four days, were to be stretched to six. They turned to the jungle for food—the iguana, an edible delicacy of the lizard family, and found that Panamanian bush experts had named it correctly when they called it "chicken of the jungle." Bananas and coconuts also tasted good to them.

They were harassed by alligators, and tormented by sand flies and "fire ants."

Cpl. Barsch's wife resides on route 3, Sedalia.

Chester "Buddy" Barnes, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Barnes, 306 West Sixth street, who was in the V-12 program of the Navy and stationed at Livermore, Calif., is now in V-5 at San Luis Obispo, Calif., where he is receiving flight training as an air cadet.

Donnelly said he had no speeches planned for the trip but that after mid-June he would "cover as much of the state as possible" in a sound-truck speaking campaign.

Refugees streaming into the beachhead substantiated the German tale of withdrawal from the Pontine marsh area, which for four months has made the beachhead a lonely, isolated thorn in the German flank. "The only thing that could prevent a juncture today would be the end of the world," an American captive told Daniel De Luce of the AP.

From captured Terracina, the Americans advanced north. The Eighth army inland virtually surrounded Piedmont and pinned the German forces to the defenses at Aquino. The Germans said "massed formations of tanks and powerful aircraft support" had rolled back their lines to the Melfa river sector in the center, 60-odd miles from Rome, as well as on the west coast.

Record of Sorties

The Mediterranean air forces flew a record 2,950 sorties yesterday.

The Russians still massed, and radio Moscow said the Red Army soon would liberate the rest of Russia and "other European nations." Diplomats in Washington said it was probable Russia would break with pro-Nazi Bulgaria in a few days and that this would force the U. S. to sever relations with Finland.

The news generally still was bullish and investment demand, although turning a bit timid, continued in evidence. Earnings, dividends and individual situations persisted as trend props.

Activity in low priced issues, including oil, kept the ticker tape busy at intervals and volume for the full session ran to around 900,000 shares, one of the largest since late April.

Carrier bonds ran into offerings after midday and most slipped into the minus column. Commodities steadied.

Harold Bell Wright Dies

Noted Fiction Writer On Ozarks Lore Was 72

SAN DIEGO, Calif., May 25—(P)—Harold Bell Wright, who left the pulpit to become one of America's famed fiction writers, died Wednesday in a La Jolla, Calif., hospital. He was 72 years old.

Wright became ill about two weeks ago and entered the hospital last week. Death was attributed to bronchial pneumonia. His wife was at the bedside when he died.

Only last month he sold his $70,000 ranch home, known as "Quiet Hills Farm," near Escondido, 30 miles northeast of here, and moved to San Diego.

Love For Ozarks

Decorator, landscape painter, church pastor and finally an author, Harold Bell Wright always remained the same, socialistic man with a contempt for the wealth which the record-breaking circulation of his books brought to him.

Though reputed to have made a million dollars with his fiction—"The Winning of Barbara Worth" alone sold 7,000,000 copies—Wright preferred the background of the Ozarks, where once he preached to its woodsmen.

He wrote steadily from 1903 on, when his "That Printer of Udell's" commanded public notice. "When a Man's a Man" taxed the capacity of the largest fiction factory in Chicago in 1917, with more than 5,000 copies sold daily.

Harold Bell Wright was born in Rome, N. Y., May 14, 1872, and attended Hiram College in Ohio. Before he was 21, he took brushes and tubes and went to the Ozark mountains. His paintings gave him a bare living and by 1897 he had left the commercial field for the ministry. From a pastorate at Pierce City, Mo., Wright went to churches in Pittsburgh, Kas., Lebanon, Mo., and Redlands, Calif. He left the pulpit in 1908.

Wright married Frances E. Long of Buffalo on July 18, 1899, and to them were born three sons, Gilbert, Norman and the late Paul Williams Wright. On August 5, 1920, he was married again to Mrs. Winifred Mary Potter Duncan of Los Angeles. He maintained homes in Tucson, Ariz., and Redlands, Calif.

No product of a college or theological seminary, Wright began preaching while painting near Lebanon, Mo. Friends asked him to take the pulpit of a church when the minister failed to appear.

"I thought," said the author, "that I could do as well as the minister I had heard a few Sundays before. . . They kept me preaching for years."

Safety Awards To Three Airlines

NEW YORK, May 25—(P)—Three national airlines, which between them have flown nearly a billion passenger miles without a passenger or crew fatality, Wednesday received national safety council awards.

Eastern Airlines won the group A award, given to lines flying more than 100,000,000 miles annually; Braniff Airways, which operates in the west and southwest, won the group B award, for lines flying 10,000,000 to 100,000,000 miles annually; and National Airlines won the group C award for lines flying less than 10,000,000 miles a year.

Col. John Stilwell, president of the national safety council, presented the awards at the eighth annual air transport safety award luncheon.

He said that together the three lines had flown 926,825,585 miles.

More Nazi Planes Meet Doom on Ground

Effort To Create Espionage Force

By Wes Gallagher

LONDON, May 26—(P)—Allied invasion commander Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower Wednesday night sought to turn Europe's restless millions into a vast espionage force to support the impending Allied blow from the west with a broadcast of new sets of concise spy instructions to the European underground.

The third such broadcast via the Allied radio a spokesman for the supreme commander called upon peoples of the occupied countries of western Europe to supply complete and accurate information on the enemy's movements when the invasion gets underway.

The broadcast stressed accuracy but warned the people, however, to "do nothing active now."

"Meanwhile, he (Eisenhower) urges you to act with the utmost caution, exercise patience, associate only with trusted patriots, and above all, maintain the discipline without which the enemy can destroy you," the speaker said.

A short form of the report, which the people were asked to memorize, included the essential headings of when, what and how many, where and in what direction and at what speed and anything special noted concerning the enemy's movements.

In outlining the plan to aid the members of the underground in applying their powers of observation, the spokesman pointed out that the commander in the field must depend on bits of information pieced together from all sources. He emphasized that "undated" reports would be useless.

Plane Lands With Wounded

TEMPLE, Tex., May 25—(P)—The C-47 army transport plane, reported "long overdue" at the Temple airport with ill and wounded soldiers from the west coast, ran into a storm and turned back to land at the Amarillo, Tex., airport, the Temple Telegram said Wednesday night.

Word that the plane had landed safely came after McCloskey General Hospital officials had become worried over its whereabouts.

Another plane arrived here at 8:14 p. m. bringing 15 men to McCloskey for hospitalization.

The first contingent of 375 veterans from the south Pacific left San Francisco today for points over the nation aboard 12 huge planes of the air transport command.

It was the largest evacuation of its kind from the west, sending the men to 16 hospitals and in most cases to within 30 miles of their homes.

The 12 planes used in the movement were equipped with oxygen tents, blood plasma and surgical equipment.

Some New Tires for 'A' Card Automobile Drivers This Fall

By Marvin L. Arrowsmith
WASHINGTON, May 25.—(AP)—New tires may start rolling this fall to "A" card automobile drivers whose hopes and treads have been wearing thin together.

First, Charles F. Phillips, the OPA's new chief of rationing, said in an interview today that "A" card drivers can expect their first new tires since the start of the war when monthly allocations of synthetics climb to 2,000,000 from the May quota of 1,400,000.

And, from the office of the rubber director, where the allocations are set, it was learned that production of passenger car tires probably will reach the 2,000,000 mark sometime in October, November or December.

No Change in Amount
As for gasoline, Phillips said there was "nothing to indicate" that the "A" ration can be increased during the present quarter, ending July 1, and that any boost in the third quarter will be dependent on allocations from the petroleum administration for war.

He said it probably would take three or four months to meet the demand of all "A" motorists. All "B" and "C" card drivers, Phillips pointed out, have been eligible for new tires since May 1.

Ship Output Up 250 Pct.
In 1943 our privately operated shipyards produced merchant shipping of approximately 19,000,000 deadweight tons, equal to one-fifth of total world shipping at the outbreak of the war and about 2½ times 1942 tonnage.

Add Variety to Menus With Bacon Garnishings

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

With bacon 60 per cent more available than it was a year ago, and its point value down to nothing, let's put bacon in more of our menus.

Bake a generous portion of bacon, serve on a platter with almond asparagus, garnished with lemon slices. To complete the menu, serve with an apple and celery salad, whole wheat bread, and iced tea.

Ideal for warm days when it's too nice to stay indoors and cook, this menu takes only 30 minutes to prepare.

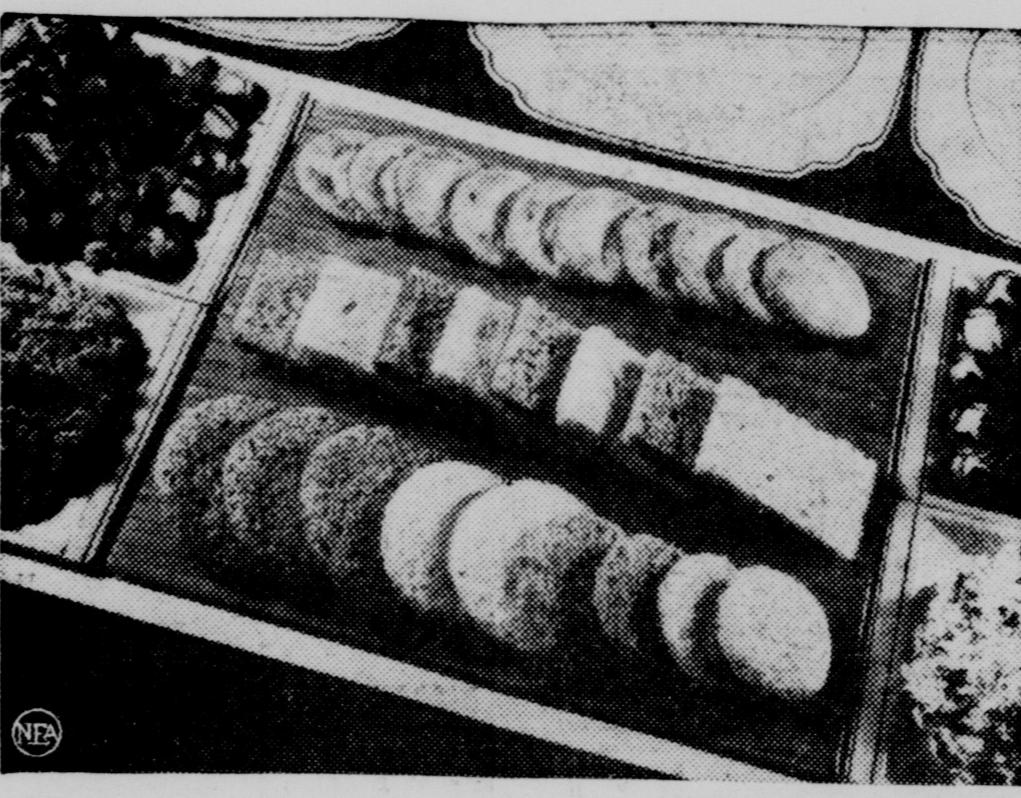

To bake bacon, which is the easiest way to prepare a pound or more, simply place slices on a wire rack set in a dripping pan. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 10 minutes or until brown.

For almond sauce, slice 1/4 cup blanched almonds lengthwise and brown lightly in 3 tablespoons bacon drippings. Stir in 1 tablespoon lemon juice and serve immediately over cooked green asparagus tips. Twist thin slices of lemon for garnish.

To pan fry bacon, lay strips in cold frying pan; cook over low fire turning frequently. Pour off fat as it accumulates. Save fat.

To broil bacon, lay strips on rack of broiler or on broiler pan about 3 1/2 inches under moderate heat. Broil only about 2 1/2 minutes. Turn when it begins to get crisp. Takes 4 to 5 minutes only.

Three elms stand on the White House lawn. Under these, President and Mrs. Madison held dances.

Watercress with cottage cheese, left-over chopped meat, in sprays—served on the hors d'oeuvres tray with assorted breads.

Baked salt codfish, mayonnaise and crumbs make tempting dish.

Pig-in-a-Poke Will Please Family at Sunday Breakfast

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Bacon 'n' eggs isn't the only deluxe dish for Sunday breakfast. Here are other suggestions:

Pig-in-a-Poke

Cut unsliced bread in thick slices (2 inches) and hollow out to make baskets. Into each hollow break an egg. Top with strips of bacon, bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) until toast and bacon are browned.

Apple Pancakes With Bacon

Add 1/2 cup chopped raw apple to batter. Serve with bacon.

Bacon Scramble

Dice cooked bacon and place in skillet with bacon drippings before adding egg and mixture for scrambled eggs.

Grilled Tomatoes With Cheese and Bacon

For Sunday supper here's a low-point treat:

One-half pound bacon, 2 tomatoes, 1/4 cup grated cheese, 2 tablespoons soft butter or margarine, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 4 slices toast.

Place the tomato slices on the toast. Cover with cheese mixed with mustard and butter or margarine. Place on a baking sheet in a hot oven (475 degrees F.) until bacon is browned and the cheese melted.

Distributed in Sedalia by BURNETT PACKING CO., Sedalia, Mo. Phone 560.

Frankie Hayes Who Was 'All Washed up'
In '43 Comes Back

By Jack Hand
Associated Press Sports Writer

Connie Mack still rates as the diamond's No. 1 "David Harum" today on the performance of Frankie Hayes, who was tabbed "all washed up" when he hit only .188 of the St. Louis Browns in 1943.

Hayes' second bases-loaded homer of the season was the telling wallop as the Philadelphia A's took over fourth place yesterday with an 8-4 decision over Detroit. It was the sixth circuit clout for the veteran catcher, who is tied for the American league lead with Cleveland's Pat Seeley.

Two "Grand Slams" by Hayes

Only three men have hit "grand slam" homers in 1944 but Hayes has done it twice. His clout of Rufe Gentry won another game from the Tigers 10 days ago. Johnny Lindell of the Yanks and Howie Schultz of Brooklyn also hit one in the stands with the sacks packed. The record for a season is four, held jointly by Franke Schulte, Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Rudy York.

Mack brought Hayes back to Philadelphia in January after an absence of a year and a half by shifting Pitcher Sam Zoldak, Outfielder Lutz and a "small amount of cash" to the Browns. Zoldak has pitched only 11-3 innings for St. Louis and Lutz is in the service and never played an inning. Hayes is completely satisfied to be back at Shibe Park, is batting clean up and has driven in 19 runs

Kramer Wins For Browns 7 To 6

ST. LOUIS, May 25.—(AP)—Jack Kramer won his sixth game of the season Wednesday night as the St. Louis Browns opened a long home stay with a 7 to 3 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Each club made seven hits.

The Browns jumped off to a three-run lead in the first inning on two singles, an error and Mark Christman's double.

although his average is not among the leaders.

Don Black was coasting to his third victory on the strength of Hayes' clout yesterday but the Tigers knocked him out and scored four runs in the ninth to ruin his shutout. He had allowed only two hits until the ninth but Joe Berry had to finish.

Emmett O'Neill Helps Browns

Jack Kramer climbed into the six-win class as the St. Louis Browns trimmed Boston 7-3, and moved into second place in a night game. Reliever Emmett O'Neill helped the Browns along with a wild spell in which he passed four men in a row and wild pitched two home with heave that landed in the grandstand.

Superb control and effective clutch hurling by Dutch Leonard helped Washington level Cleveland 5-4, with an 11-hit attack on three Tribe hurlers.

Pittsburgh's Rip Sewell pounded out two doubles and drove in three runs while taming Boston with six hits for an 8-1 decision. Jim Tobin was the victim, the first time the no-hit hurler has been beaten by his old mates since Sept. 2, 1942.

Paul Erickson made his first start a neat five-hit shutout as Chicago blanked the Phillies 2-0, last night.

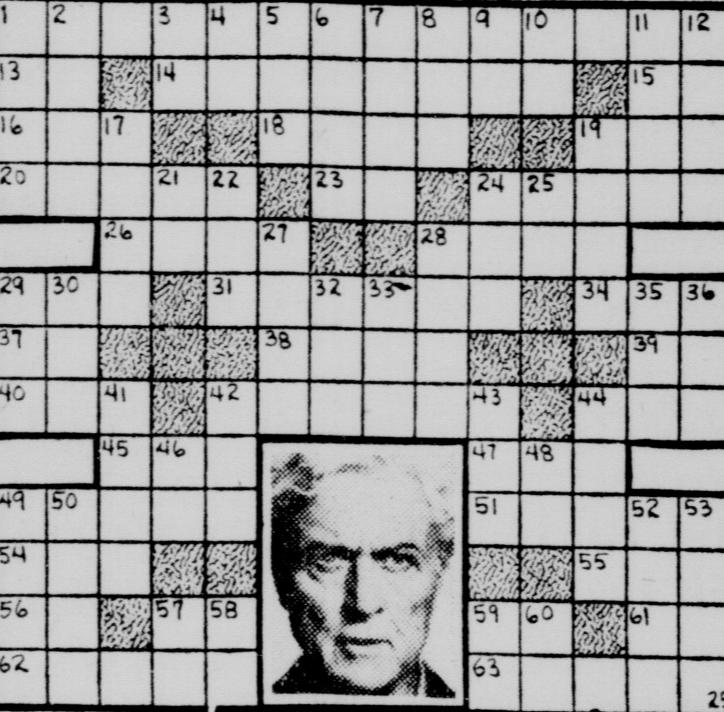

The Cincinnati-New York and St. Louis-Brooklyn games in the National and New York at Chicago tilt in the American were postponed on account of rain.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, May 25.—(AP)—Walter St. Denis, dean of Mike Jacobs' drum-beating staff, argues that the next heavyweight champion won't come out of the armed forces but will be a four-effer like Joe Baskin or Freddie Schott . . . Maybe it's just a coincidence that Baskin and Schott are on Friday's Garden card, but Walter has a logical argument that fighters who are active in the ring have better chances of reaching the top than guys whose energies have been devoted to another kind of fighting . . . Thomas De La Cruz, the Reds' pitcher, has a kid brother who plays in the band at the Havana-Madrid night spot . . . Owner Ted Collins of the Boston Yanks has rented a store room in a good Boston location and is planning to "sell" pro football by means of an animated window display . . . How about a few animated players, too.

Under the plan the batter has the right to run either to third or first base, but must continue to advance in the same direction he starts out. Thus it will be possible for runners to go both ways simultaneously.

Dumont said sports writers had ridiculed the plan nearly 100 per cent, but fan mail received at his office showed 20 per cent favored the idea even before tested, 25 per cent opposed it and 55 per cent wanted to see it tried out.

Today's Guest Star

Red Smith, Philadelphia Record: "There is no spot on the Atlantic seaboard more ideally suited to family and lodge picnics than the Sylvan Dell among the trees at Delaware Park which, up to now, has been utilized as a paddock and saddling ring."

OBOROUS Comparisons

Latest handout from the All-American girls professional ball league reports that, after completing their personality course, the players "will be recognized for the poised way they walk down the street, the charm they radiate in conversation and the good-taste in clothes they wear" . . . In other words, they'll combine the virtues of shufflin' Phil Douglas, Leo Durocher and Lefty (Green Suit) O'Doul.

A Rookie a Day

Fermín (Mike) Guerra, Senators' catcher: Rated just one line and no pro record in the Red Book this spring . . . He's a Mexican who played in the Cuban winter league . . . Signed as a possible understudy to Rick Ferrel. Mike got his chance when Ferrel ripped a thumb trying to handle those butterfly pitches. Now Rick takes liberties with his voyage on a Liberty ship. It should be the season's best seller . . . Harry Markson reports hearing a fight manager explain that Henry Armstrong is the kind of fighter who swamps all over you.

Shorts and Shells

After the Giants blew that game for him Thursday night, Bill Voiselle was so mad he threw down his glove and gave it a couple of lusty kicks . . . Whereupon a kid broke out of the crowd, tucked the glove under his shirt and raced for an exit . . . Tom O'Reilly, who received his nautical training on Jacob's Beach, has written a book, "Pursuer's Progress," in which he takes liberties with his voyage on a Liberty ship. It should be the season's best seller . . . Harry Markson reports hearing a fight manager explain that Henry Armstrong is the kind of fighter who swamps all over you.

Service Dept.

Lieut. J. Norman Anderson, former Dartmouth player who virtually won Hoboken, N. J., on the tennis map, has been reported missing in action in the Pacific area . . . Winston Guest, polo star and big game hunter who made some sort of speed record in rising from Marine private to second lieutenant, almost was turned down because he had lost part of his trigger finger in a hunting accident.

Russell McConnell formerly roamed the outfield for Illinois State Teachers; Pvt. J. Lambert was a catcher for the University of Cincinnati. W/O Albert Arnold, shortstop, played ball for Columbia, a St. Louis Cardinal farm team.
